Award-winning Martial Arts Dance Drama

Storm Clouds

Returns In All Its Glory In June

Greatness Can Never Be Contained

Winner of 2015 Hong Kong Dance Awards

Outstanding Achievement in Production

Outstanding Performance by a Male Dancer

Outstanding Achievement in Music for Dance

Due to popular demand, the Martial Arts Dance Drama Storm Clouds will return in all its glory on 24 to 26 June at the Hong Kong Cultural Centre Grand Theatre. This award-winning production is set to reignite the classic and gripping tale of the hugely popular Hong Kong comic The Storm Riders, and bring to life the vision of Hong Kong Dance Company's Artistic Director Yang Yuntao with more depth and dynamism.

Published in instalments over 25 years, The Storm Riders was first adapted into the dance drama Storm Clouds in 2014. The fierce battle between Bo Ging-wan (Cloud) and Lip Fung (Wind), the ethereal dance movements of heroine Hung Chi, a complex love triangle and enthralling dance left audiences wowed. The debut was highly praised and won several trophies at the Hong Kong Dance Awards. Now the phenomenal show, which combines dance, drama and martial arts, is returning to the stage to stir up the mundane!

Many Hong Kong people grew up reading The Storm Riders, where within the pages of its near 700 chapters filling three volumes, a gripping plot and fascinating characters are described in great detail. Storm Clouds extracts the most exciting parts of the story, and sets it on an innovative stage that utilises digital imagery, a gleaming pool of water, sophisticated lighting and award-winning music score to reconstruct the comic realm and offer audiences great visual pleasure.

Swords wield, water gets splashed about and the two brotherly heroes are torn apart by hatred and destiny in this captivating, high-action dance drama.
